   For the Cambridge Exams, Candidates are required to observe smart casual attire. The following are allowed:

   First time offenders will be warned and repeat offenders may be barred from sitting for the exam until properly attired.

   iii. Calculator (If permitted)/geometrical instruments
   iv. Transparent water bottles

7. Why is it important to leave a valid email address and phone number?

   Our main means of communication to the candidates and parents is through Email. We send out Announcements, Instructions and Statements of Entry. Not having a valid email address means missing out on this extra service.

   Do note that it is still the candidate's responsibility to be aware of the dates of their exams, and that "having not received any email" is not a valid reason to be late or absent from any examination.

8. Why is the "First Language English?" field reflected as not specified in the Statement of Entry, even though the candidate is sitting for the First Language English Paper?

   This was an optional field to supply to Cambridge. As such, we chose not to include this information when uploading the candidate's details. This will not be reflected anywhere else aside from the Statement of Entry.
