4. What time should I report for examinations?

For Speaking Test, please report 30 minutes before your respective slot.

For the Written Examinations, reporting times are as follows:

AM Session – before 8:00 am

PM Session – before 12:00 pm

All Candidates MUST report at the above timings, although the exam that you are sitting for is a few hours later. You must be quarantined away from electronic communications devices to avoid getting an advantage over other candidates around the world (who have completed their exams and are discussing the answers online).

5. What should I wear for the examination?

For the Cambridge Exams, Candidates are required to observe smart casual attire. The following are allowed:

- T-Shirts with Sleeves
- Long Pants/Jeans
- Skirts (Knee length or longer)
- Shoes

Candidates are encouraged to bring a jacket or sweater as it can become quite cold in the exam hall.

Strictly not allowed:

- Slippers or Sandals
- Shorts
- Spaghetti strapped/sleeveless blouses
- Torn Jeans

First time offenders will be warned and repeat offenders may be barred from sitting for the exam until properly attired.

6. What should I bring for the examination?

- i. IC (Very important, candidates will not be allowed to sit for the exam without it. Statement of Entry is not sufficient)
- ii. Stationery in a clear transparent casing
- iii. Calculator (If permitted)/geometrical instruments
- iv. Transparent water bottles

7. Why is it important to leave a valid email address and phone number?

Our main means of communication to the candidates and parents is through Email. We send out Announcements, Instructions and Statements of Entry. Not having a valid email address means missing out on this extra service.

Do note that it is still the candidate's responsibility to be aware of the dates of their exams, and that "having not received any email" is not a valid reason to be late or absent from any examination.

8. Why is the "First Language English?" field reflected as not specified in the Statement of Entry, even though the candidate is sitting for the First Language English Paper?

This was an optional field to supply to Cambridge. As such, we chose not to include this information when uploading the candidate's details. This will not be reflected anywhere else aside from the Statement of Entry.
